

Highlights

- IEEE 2030.5 certificates never expire; denial is the sanctioned substitute
- Measured: denying a compromised identity removes no feeder harm at all
- Expiry must reach the session and the issued command, or it contains nothing
- A reactive bound admitting zero absorption fails where a floor contains
- Exposure tracks the volt-var support drawn, not the PV penetration

